18 FOR OPPORTUNITY AND RE-
19 SULTS ACT

20 SEC. 3001. SHORT TITLE.

21 This division may be cited as the “Scholarships for 22 Opportunity and Results Act” or the “SOAR Act”.

23 SEC. 3002. FINDINGS.

24 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) Parents are best equipped to make decisions
2 for their children, including the educational setting
3 that will best serve the interests and educational 4 needs of their child.

5 (2) For many parents in the District of Colum-
6 bia, public school choice provided under the Elemen-
7 tary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as well
8 as under other public school choice programs, is in-9 adequate. More educational options are needed to 10 ensure all families in the District of Columbia have 11 access to a quality education. In particular, funds
12 are needed to provide low-income parents with en-
13 hanced public opportunities and private educational 14 environments, regardless of whether such environ-
15 ments are secular or nonsecular.

16 (3) While the per student cost for students in 17 the public schools of the District of Columbia is one 18 of the highest in the United States, test scores for 19 such students continue to be among the lowest in 20 the Nation. The National Assessment of Educational 21 Progress (NAEP), an annual report released by the 22 National Center for Education Statistics, reported in 23 its 2009 study that students in the District of Co-
24 lumbia were being outperformed by every State in 25 the Nation. On the 2009 NAEP, 56 percent of

1 fourth grade students scored “below basic” in read-
2 ing, and 44 percent scored “below basic” in mathe-
3 matics. Among eighth grade students, 49 percent
4 scored “below basic” in reading and 60 percent
5 scored “below basic” in mathematics. On the 2009
6 NAEP reading assessment, only 17 percent of the 7 District of Columbia fourth grade students could 8 read proficiently, while only 13 percent of the eighth
9 grade students scored at the proficient or advanced 10 level.

11 (4) In 2003, Congress passed the DC School
12 Choice Incentive Act of 2003 (Public Law 108–199;
13 118 Stat. 126), to provide opportunity scholarships
14 to parents of students in the District of Columbia to 15 enable them to pursue a high-quality education at a 16 public or private elementary or secondary school of 17 their choice. The DC Opportunity Scholarship Pro-
18 gram (DC OSP) under such Act was part of a com-19 prehensive 3-part funding arrangement that also in-
20 cluded additional funds for the District of Columbia 21 public schools, and additional funds for public char-
22 ter schools of the District of Columbia. The intent 23 of the approach was to ensure that progress would 24 continue to be made to improve public schools and 25 public charter schools, and that funding for the op-

1 opportunity scholarship program would not lead to a
2 reduction in funding for the District of Columbia
3 public and charter schools. Resources would be avail-
4 able for a variety of educational options that would 5 give families in the District of Columbia a range of 6 choices with regard to the education of their chil-
7 dren.

8 (5) The DC OSP was established in accordance 9 with the Supreme Court decision, Zelman v. Sim-
10 mons-Harris, 536 U.S. 639 (2002), which found
11 that a program enacted for the valid secular purpose
12 of providing educational assistance to low-income
13 children in a demonstrably failing public school sys-
14 tem is constitutional if it is neutral with respect to 15 religion and provides assistance to a broad class of 16 citizens who direct government aid to religious and 17 secular schools solely as a result of their genuine
18 and independent private choices.

19 (6) Since the inception of the DC OSP, it has 20 consistently been oversubscribed. Parents express
21 strong support for the opportunity scholarship pro-
22 gram. Rigorous studies of the program by the Insti-
23 tute of Education Sciences have shown significant
24 improvements in parental satisfaction and in reading
25 scores that are more dramatic when only those stu-

1 dents consistently using the scholarships are consid-
2 ered. The program also was found to result in sig-
3 nificantly higher graduation rates for DC OSP stu-
4 dents.

5 (7) The DC OSP is a program that offers fami-
6 lies in need, in the District of Columbia, important
7 alternatives while public schools are improved. This 8 program should be reauthorized as 1 of a 3-part 9 comprehensive funding strategy for the District of 10 Columbia school system that provides new and equal
11 funding for public schools, public charter schools,
12 and opportunity scholarships for students to attend
13 private schools.

14 SEC. 3003. PURPOSE.

15 The purpose of this division is to provide low-income 16 parents residing in the District of Columbia, particularly 17 parents of students who attend elementary schools or sec-
18 ondary schools identified for improvement, corrective ac-
19 tion, or restructuring under section 1116 of the Elemen-
20 tary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C.
21 6316), with expanded opportunities for enrolling their 22 children in other schools in the District of Columbia, at 23 least until the public schools in the District of Columbia 24 have adequately addressed shortfalls in health, safety, and 25 security, and the students in the District of Columbia pub-

1 lie schools are testing in mathematics and reading at or 2 above the national average.

3 SEC. 3004. GENERAL AUTHORITY.

4 (a) OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIPS.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—From funds appropriated
6 under section 3014(a)(1), the Secretary shall award

20 funds to the Mayor of the District of Columbia, if the 21 Mayor agrees to the requirements described in section 22 3011(a), for—

23 (1) the District of Columbia public schools to 24 improve public education in the District of Colum-
25 bia; and

1 (2) the District of Columbia public charter
2 schools to improve and expand quality public charter
3 schools in the District of Columbia.

4 SEC. 3005. APPLICATIONS.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—In order to receive a grant under 6 section 3004(a), an eligible entity shall submit an applica-
7 tion to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and 8 accompanied by such information as the Secretary may 9 require.
